REFERENCE

MVG - Märkische Verkehrsgesellschaft mbH Lüdenscheid, Germany

Project Scope

330 buses

Project Highlights

- Intermodal Transport Control System (ITCS)
- Back office system with integrated e-Ticketing
- Hand-held devices to issue penalty fare tickets
- Web-based customer portal
- Combined ticket printer / on-board computer based on PC technology in the vehicles
- Driver's navigation
- New, online payments and dunning system
- Integration and equipment of 45 pre-sales locations with ticketing device TOUCHstation2
- Planning system MOBILE-PLAN with infotainment administration system Multimedia Data Center
- Traffic signal priority system
- Connection protection
- Detour management
- Integration of exterior passenger information displays
- Various interfaces:
    - FAN
    - Navision
    - Duty roster data according to VDV 455b
    - Real-time information according to VDV453/454
    - Depot management system according to VDV 461
    - PATRIS

INIT Products and Systems

MOBILE-ITCS	MOBILEreports	PROXmobil2
MOBILE-PLAN	MOBILEsurvey	TOUCHstation2
MOBILE-STOPinfo	MOBILEguard	PAmobil2
MOBILEvario	MOBILEflow	CASHdesk
MOBILEforms	EVENDpc2	MONAtsp2

Project Partner

Märkische Verkehrsgesellschaft GmbH (MVG), based in Lüdenscheid, is the municipal service provider for public transportation in the Märkische Kreis (district in central North Rhine-Westphalia).
The service area, with about 450,000 residents, comprises 15 cities and townships of the Märkische Kreis, parts of the cities of Hagen and Schwerte, outskirts of the Ennepe-Ruhr district, the Oberbergische district as well as districts of Olpe, Soest and Unna. MVG operates 138 bus lines and appro.. 140 routes in the special transportation of disable students. Approx. 146,000 passengers are transported on a workday.

Contact

info@initse.com

INIT is the worldwide leading supplier of integrated ITS and Ticketing systems for busses and trains. For more than 30 years, we have been assisting transportation companies in making public transport more attractive, faster and more efficient.
www.initag.com

The Future of Mobility